Admiral Evans and Officers of the Fleet Brilliantly Feted by the Osceola Club.

The most brilliant entertainment of the Osceola Club's brilliant social record was the dance given last night for Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans and the officers of the fleet now in port, and attended by probably five hundred guests who were welcomed by the following members of the club who formed the reception committee: Mr. W. S. Keyser, Capt. Thos. Perry, U. S. N., Col. H. W. Hubbell, U. S. A., Mr. A. M. Avery, Mr. H. Baars, Mr. D. G. Brent, Mr. H. L. Covington, Mr. John Denham, Mr. W. H. Knowles, Mr. S. R. Mallory, Mr. E. O. Saltmarsh, Mr. Jno. E. Stillman, Mr. H. H. Thornton, Mr. Thos. C. Watson, Mr. W. B. Wright.

The whole north side of the club was thrown into one great ball room brilliantly illuminated by innumerable electric lights, and here the ball opened at nine o'clock, with the following gentlemen forming the floor committee: Mr. Mansfield Moreno, Mr. R. M. Cary, Mr. Henry Hyer, Mr. W. D. C. Kessler, Mr. J. C. Porter, Mr. J. M. Roberts, Mr. W. B. Runyan, Mr. Jas. C. Watson.

Dancing began at 9 o'clock, a special orchestra from the U. S. S. Alabama, alternating with Barrios's orchestra in furnishing excellent music.

The entire south side of the club

RECEPTION FOR THE

STATE U. D. C.

The following invitations have been received by the members of the Memorial

Association, Camp Ward No. 10,

U. C. V. Sons and Daughters of the Confederacy:

"You are invited to meet the visiting

Daughters of the Confederacy,

Wednesday, May 3,

from 8 until 11 o'clock,

at the

Osceola Club."

MERIT REWARDED.

The difference in points of view is what leads to most of the mistakes in life, and ignorance of those different points leads the ignorant to denominate a simple difference in points

of view as a criminal offense.

The inability to place oneself in another's position in order to discover his motives, is the handicap that keeps

well-meaning people mentally fenced in,

mars their usefulness and debars

them from the sunshine of the open

mental atmosphere that is as necessary to mental and spiritual growth

as sunshine and open air are to physical development.

Way back in the nineties a wealthy

South Floridian whose knowledge was limited to his own unobserved personal observations and experiences, met a resident of Tampa on Tampa street in that city and indignantly

asked to be directed to "that great

new building of the First National Bank," saying that a newspaper man

had told him it was only about half

as far from the depot as the old location of the bank which had moved

since his last visit to town.

The resident directed him to a large brick structure, the rear yard of which was cluttered with boxes,

boards, wrapping paper and other waste from the dry goods store that occupied a portion of the lower floor adjoining the part occupied by the bank.

"What! That dirty lookin' place?

Why, that lyn' scoundrel told me it was built of marble—white marble—

and was the finest buildin' in the whole town!"

The resident tried to explain that the structure was of brick with a handsome marble front, and even escorted the visitor round the block to the court house park on Franklin street where he had a fine view of the handsome marble front, but, as long as he lived the visitor recounted that incident to illustrate the utter unreliability of the newspaper man who

in a spirit of friendliness had directed him to "the First National's splendid new marble home."

On the other hand, the obliging

resident who found the visitor absolutely proof against all reasoning, frequently quotes him to illustrate the folly of prejudice and the hold of first impressions

upon the uncultivated mind

which clings to its traditions, superstitions

and prejudices in the face of Truth itself.

The newspaper man habitually looked on the best side of things and by association he was more familiar with the imposing marble front of the bank building than with its equally substantial but less attractive side

and rear walls of brick and its unattractive rear yard.

The visitor's uninitiated mind was looking for a building wholly constructed of white marble, but, limited to the one idea he was unable to comprehend

the fact that the newspaper man had been "lied" to him, but that he had deceived himself regarding both the man and the building.

When the South Florida visitor

died another newspaper said that:

"He was a good citizen and will meet

his reward in the marble mansions

above." And the Tampa newspaper man reprinted it with due credit and headed it:—"Merit Rewarded."

The president of the Memorial Association requests that the members of both the Memorial Association and of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, all bring wreaths and wear their badges at the Memorial services in Lee Park to-day that they may be readily identified.

Miss Irene Pettheim has returned from a visit to Hunt Springs, Ala.

Dr. C. Rubach of Evergreen, Ala., is the guest of Mr. Edward de la Rue.

Mr. A. A. Fisher returned yesterday morning from Atlanta, where he spent a day or two on business.

The Easter Monday ball by the Catholic Knights and ladies at C. K. of A. hall Monday night was a most pleasurable affair and probably the most successful they have ever given. Among the features of the occasion was a prize for the best lady and gentleman dancers and it was won by Mr. and Mrs. Hester.

Miss Martine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Cobb entertained a number of her young friends Friday evening with an Easter Egg hunt.

Mr. Fulmer Watson, of Anderson, S. C., arrived Monday to remain for the Brock-Percival wedding to-night. Miss Ella Brock, sister of the groom-elect, also arrived and will attend the wedding.

Mobile Register: Hon. R. H. Clarke and Miss Mary Morris Clarke left Sunday afternoon for Pensacola.

Mrs. J. H. Leath yesterday received information by telegraph of the serious illness of her sister in Birmingham. She left last night to be at her bedside.

Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Elliott and two sons, Claude and Alex, of Montgomery, Ala., left Sunday for home after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Tucker 400 North Hayne.

Mrs. Gus Riss left Monday night for Memphis for a month and then goes to Arkansas to visit relatives.

The young men of the Progress Club gave an enjoyable dance in the club rooms Monday night in honor of the young ladies. Weyer's orchestra furnished the music and the only married people present were the chaperones Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Cohen and Mr. and Mrs. P. Stone.

Mrs. R. B. Kim left on the noon train yesterday to the regret of her many friends, for her home in Ligonier, Ind., after spending six months most pleasantly with her granddaughter Mrs. George W. Carpenter.

Sunday night a number of young people surprised Miss Fannie Shuter of Tallahassee at the residence of her hostess Miss Goldstucker, on the eve of her departure for home after an all too brief visit in this city, where she is very popular.

The many friends of Dr. W. H. P. Hodson, who has been confined to St. Anthony's Hospital for several weeks, will be pleased to know that he is now rapidly improving and expects to be out in a few days.

Perfectly natural. Blue Ribbon Lemon and Vanilla Extracts are just the pure concentrated extract of the fruit. Takes less. Flavors perfectly.

Colorado Covered With Snow. Denver, Colo., April 25.—The storm that began early Sunday morning continued to-day and the plains of eastern Colorado are covered with 6 to 8 inches of snow. Train service on nearly all railroads in Colorado is delayed by the snow. A landslide in the Royal gorge on the main line of the Denver & Rio Grande Railroad covered the track and delayed traffic for several hours.

The Hospital

Thankful are They Who Escape The
Surgeon's Knife

Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful—oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

The most valuable tonic and re-builder of the female organism, the medicine with a record of thousands of cases literally snatched from the operating table, is

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Paul Oliver, whose letter follows:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I was suffering from pains in my side and womb. The doctors said to get well I must have an operation performed, but I would not consent to that.

I heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and sent for a bottle; the first dose did me good, and after taking the first bottle I could sleep all right and I did not have those pains around my womb which I had all the time before. Now I can ride ten miles in a carriage, my color has returned, and I am full of life. I owe all this to the Vegetable Compound.

It has also done wonders for my thirteen-year-old daughter. I will never cease to praise it and recommend it to my friends.

Mrs. PAUL OLIVER, St. Martinsville, La.

Thousands of women, residing in every city and town in the United States, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.

MERCHANTS ORGANIZED

A LARGE ATTENDANCE LAST NIGHT, WHEN OFFICERS WERE SELECTED.

A large number of the leading merchants of the city met last night at the store of Laz Jacoby, when the merchants formed an organization for self-protection.

The meeting was called several days since and the attendance of merchants was much larger than was anticipated. The meeting was organized by the election of W. W. Watson, as chairman and Henry Horsler as secretary.

The object of the organization is for self protection, or in order to keep one another posted as to that class of persons who make a habit and profession of buying on credit and never paying their bills. If the system contemplated is adopted, this class of citizens will find it a very hard matter to obtain goods upon credit.

Another meeting will be held next Tuesday night, when a permanent organization will be perfected.

An Exclusive Affair.

"It was settled some time ago that he was to marry my daughter," said the father of a girl of the period, "but it yet remained for the young man to get my consent. It was merely a formality, however, as my girl had arranged matters to suit herself without consulting me or my wishes."

"Now, I remembered with what trepidation I had approached my wife's father when I asked him for her hand, and I made up my mind that when that young man showed up to ask me for my daughter's hand I would have revenge not only for what I had to pass through when I urged my suit, but also for being relegated to the background during the present proceedings."

"Well, he called at my office the other day, and I told my office boy to admit him and leave us alone and see that we were not disturbed."

"Just dropped in," said he easily, declining to take a seat, to tell you that I am going to marry your daughter on the 15th of next month. It will be an informal affair, so you may consider yourself invited without further notice. Good day."

"Before I could catch my breath he was gone, and when I complained to my daughter about his treatment of me all the comfort I got was that I could consider myself fortunate in getting an invitation, as it was to be a very exclusive affair."
